VOL. III. RALEIGH, N. C., WEDNESDAY, JUNE 24, 1868. NO. 272

DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

MESSAGE

OF THE PRESIDENT.

VETO OF THE ARKANSAS BILL.

To the House of Representatives:

I return, without my signature, a bill entitled "An act to admit the State of Arkansas to representation in Congress."

The approval of this bill would be an admission on the part of the Executive that the "Act for the more efficient government of the rebel States," passed March 2, 1867, and the acts supplementary thereto, were proper and constitutional. My opinion, however, in reference to these measures has undergone no change, but, on the contrary, has been strengthened by the results which have attended their execution.

Even were this not the case, I could not consent to a bill which is based upon the assumption either that by an act of rebellion of a portion of its people the State of Arkansas seceded from the Union, or that Congress may, at its pleasure, expel or exclude a State from the Union, or interrupt its relations with the Government by arbitrarily depriving it of representation in the Senate and House of Representatives. If Arkansas is a State not in the Union, this bill does not admit it as a State into the Union. If, on the other hand, Arkansas is a State in the Union, no legislation is necessary to declare it entitled "to representation in Congress as one of the States of the Union." The Constitution already declares that "each State shall have at least one Representative;" "that the Senate shall be composed of two Senators from each State;" and "that no State without its consent shall be deprived of its suffrage in the Senate." That instrument also makes each House "the judges of the elections, returns, and qualifications of its own members," and therefore all that is now necessary to restore Arkansas in all its constitutional relations to the Government is the decision by each House upon the eligibility of those who, presenting their credentials, claim seats in the respective Houses of Congress. This is the plain and simple plan of the Constitution; and believing that had it been pursued when Congress assembled in the month of December, 1865, the restoration of the States would long since have been completed, I once again recommend that it be adopted by each House, in preference to legislation which I respectfully submit is not only of at least doubtful constitutionality, and therefore unwise and dangerous as a precedent, but is unnecessary, not so effective in its operation as the mode prescribed by the Constitution, involves the additional delay, and from its terms may be taken rather as applicable to a Territory about to be admitted as one of the United States, than to a State which has occupied a place in the Union for upwards of a quarter of a century.

The bill declares the State of Arkansas entitled and admitted to representation in Congress as one of the States of the Union upon the following fundamental condition:

"That the Constitution of Arkansas shall never be so amended or changed as to deprive any citizen or class of citizens of the United States of the right to vote who are entitled to vote by the Constitution herein recognized, except as a punishment for such crimes as are now felonies at common law, whereof they shall be duly convicted under laws equally applicable to all the inhabitants of said State. Provided, That any alteration of said Constitution, prospective in its effect, may be made in regard to the time and place of residence of voters."

I have been unable to find in the Constitution of the United States any warrant for the exercise of the authority thus claimed by Congress. In assuming the power to impose a "fundamental condition" upon a State which has been duly admitted into the Union on an equal footing with the original States, in all respects whatever, Congress asserts a right to enter a State as it may a Territory, and to regulate the highest prerogative of a free people—the elective franchise. This question is reserved by the Constitution to the States themselves, and to concede to Congress the power to regulate this subject would be to reverse the fundamental principle of the Republic, and to place in the hands of the Federal Government (which is the creature of the States) the sovereignty which justly belongs to the States or the people, to the true source of all political power by whom our Federal system was created, and to whose will all is subordinate.

The bill fails to provide in what manner the State of Arkansas is to signify its acceptance of the "fundamental condition" which Congress endeavors to make unalterable and irrevocable. Nor does it prescribe the penalty to be imposed should the people of the State amend or change the particular portions of the Constitution which it is one of the purposes of the bill to perpetuate, but leaves them in uncertainty and doubt as to the consequences of such action, when the circumstances under which this Constitution has been brought to the attention of Congress are considered. It is not unreasonable to suppose that efforts will be made to modify its provisions, and especially those in respect to which this measure prohibits any alteration. It is seriously questioned whether the Constitution has been ratified by a majority of the persons who, under the act of March 2, 1867, and the acts supplementary thereto, were entitled to registration and to vote upon that issue. Section ten of the schedule provides that "no person disqualified from voting or registering under this Constitution, shall vote for candidates for any office, nor shall be permitted to vote for the ratification or rejection of the Constitution at the polls herein authorized." Assumed to be in force before its adoption, in disregard of the law of Congress, the Constitution undertakes to impose upon the elector other and further conditions. The fifth section of the eighth article provides that "all persons, before registering or voting," must take and subscribe an oath which, among others, contains the following clause:

"That I accept the civil and political equality of all men, and agree not to attempt to deprive any person or persons, on account of race, color, or previous condition, of any political or civil right, privilege, or immunity enjoyed by any other class of men."

It is well known that a very large portion of the electors in all the States, if not a large majority of all of them, do not believe in or accept the political equality of Indians, Mongolians, or negroes with the race to which they belong. If the voters of many of the States of the North and West were required to take such an oath as a test of their qualification, there is reason to believe that a majority of them would remain from the polls rather than comply with its degrading conditions.

How far and to what extent this test oath prevented the registration of those who were qualified under the laws of Congress, it is not possible to know; but that such was its effect, at least sufficient to overcome them all and give a doubtful majority in favor of this Constitution, there can be no reasonable doubt.

Should the people of Arkansas, therefore, desiring to regulate the elective franchise so as to make it conform to the Constitutions of a large proportion of the States of the North and West, modify the provisions referred to in the "fundamental condition," what is to be the consequence? Is it intended that a denial of representation shall follow?—And if so, may we not dread, at some future day, a recurrence of the troubles which have so long agitated the country? Would it not be the part of wisdom to take for our guide the Federal Constitution, rather than resort to measures which, looking only to the present, may in a few years renew, in an aggravated form, the strife and bitterness caused by legislation which has proved to be ill-timed and unfortunate?

ANDREW JOHNSON.

WASHINGTON, June 20, 1868.

From the Washington Evening Express, 22nd.

WILL THE PRESIDENT VETO THE ACT OF CONGRESS ADMITTING THE SOUTHERN STATES?

How can he do otherwise, with his views, repeatedly expressed and still entertained, that the reconstruction acts are unconstitutional? Superadded to his objections, heretofore expressed, to the reconstruction acts, there are other Constitutional objections to the acts of admission themselves.—Senators Johnson, Morton, and Fowler demonstrated, in the Senate, the unconstitutionality of the conditions imposed upon the States by the acts of admission, and Senator Trumbull made an unanswerable argument against the admission of Alabama in violation of the law under which the Constitution of that State was voted on by the people, and Senator Howe made a speech against the admission of Arkansas, showing the danger of admitting that State under the circumstances of the case.

The whole question is involved in doubt and confusion, and it is believed that if the vote could be retaken the Senate would sustain the veto of the President, upon the ground that it would be best to postpone the admission of the Southern States until after the Presidential election, when the people of all the States would have an opportunity of deciding the question of negro suffrage, and reconstruction could then be permanently and satisfactorily accomplished.

WILLIAM E. PELL, | SEATON GALES, EDITORS.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 24, 1868

What is called the Chase movement will cause no disturbance, for the reason that Mr. Chase will not receive a single vote from any delegation. The reason is, that nobody can be voted for as a candidate who does not acknowledge his obligation to stand by the ticket if his claims are overruled. In a contest between Mr. Pendleton and Governor Seymour, (if Governor Seymour could be persuaded to be a candidate,) we should know from the beginning that whichever succeeded the other would not fail to give him his cordial support. But we have no assurance that Chief Justice Chase would, in like manner, feel bound by the action of the Convention. If he should receive the nomination at all, it could be only by a spontaneous and unanimous tender—a contingency so improbable that it is not worth discussing.—New York World.

We regard it as singularly unfortunate for a leading Democratic journal, like the World, to have become an active favorer of the Chase movement, (as it was, at one time,) if it had any reason to believe that Chief Justice Chase would not acquiesce in and abide by the decision of the National Democratic Convention. Harmony, in the counsels of that body, is the most important condition of success. The Democratic and Conservative press should avoid, by all means, the suggestion of any person for the National Democratic ticket, simply to excite discussion as to his chances of nomination, when a doubt is felt either that he would not readily stand upon the platform of that Convention, or would not abide by and support its nominees, no matter upon whom the choice might fall.

If the World is now correct in its supposition, that Mr. Chase will not receive a single vote from any delegation, we think it highly blameable, (as well as every other Democratic or Conservative journal would be,) for countenancing the "Chase movement" a moment, until it was assured that Mr. Chase would accept the nomination on a sound Democratic platform, or, if beaten in a fair contest for the nomination, would nevertheless support the ticket. That should have been a condition with any leading, influential journal, like the World, before expressing any opinion which at all encouraged the idea of Judge Chase's nomination in the Democratic Convention.

We fear that the countenance given to, and the, at least, quasi advocacy of, Judge Chase's nomination, by that and other leading Conservative journals, will prevent the harmony and concord which otherwise would have prevailed. The approval by leading Democratic and Conservative gentlemen and papers, of Mr. Chase's nomination, and the arguments employed by them in his support and in proof of the certainty or strong probabilities of his success, constitute the Chief Justice, in spite of any disposition to withdraw from him now, a very formidable candidate, either inside or outside of the Democratic nomination. His particular admirers, (and the agitation of his name favorably, by Conservatives and Democrats, has made the number quite large,) will not be so ready, after the assertion of his strength, to allow him to remain quiescent, after a rejection by the Democratic Convention. He will undoubtedly be run as a third candidate, and a very grave question will be raised, and ought to be carefully pondered by the Democratic Convention, whether Judge Chase, as a third candidate, will not more easily and certainly defeat the Democratic candidate, by throwing the election into the House of Representatives, than he could be defeated himself, were he run as the nominee of the Democracy.

We have not misjudged Judge Chase's position from the first. We knew that his record and present opinions were adverse to our own views, yet if any doubt in the Convention should exist as to the certainty of Gen. Grant's defeat, by running a candidate whose views entirely accorded with those of the Democrats and Conservatives, we have been entirely favorable to taking up the least evil, by the nomination of Judge Chase, if he could combine the Democratic and Conservative elements of the country for the defeat of the Radical party. We believe no calamity could befal the nation, greater than the continuance of that party in power, under the lead of Gen. Grant. If we cannot defeat them by [illegible] candidates wholly acceptable to the Democratic and Conservatives, by all means let us take up Judge Chase, who seems to be honestly aroused to the dangers threatening the nation by the destructive and revolutionary tendencies of the party in power,—provided he will accept the platform of the party as his own, and will sustain it. The National Democratic Convention should first frame its platform, and then submit it to the strongest men named for the ticket, and secure their approval before the nomination.

THE DISABILITY BILL, as announced on yesterday, by telegraph, has passed both Houses of Congress, and now only awaits the signature of the President to become a law. Whether he approve or veto, it will doubtless become a law in time to allow the greedy expectants to qualify. In anticipation of this result, they are flocking hitherward. We notice Capt. Settle in the City, and Col. Heaton and Mr. John Pool are also said to be on hand, prepared for a regular Senatorial siege. We look for interesting developments as the Ides of July approach. Somebody is obliged to be disappointed.—Blessed are those who expect nothing.

WE LEARN that some of the cormorants are claiming that the Relief from Disability Bill is now a law, although it has yet to receive the signature of the President or to pass over his veto. This is in keeping with the course of the "Governor elect," who is not yet a Governor, in acting under a law, which is not a law.

THE NEW YORK WORLD.

We seriously deprecate the disposition evinced, of late, by this able journal, which certainly exerts a potent influence over an intelligent portion of Northern Democrats and Conservatives, to turn over the Southern whites and the Southern States to the tender mercies of the Radical negroes and whites. It was only the other day that it gave us to understand, that the National Democratic party could do nothing for the down-trodden South, in relieving it of the direful consequences of Radical reconstruction,—that our only hope of deliverance from negro rule and negro supremacy in the South, when once Radical reconstruction was completed, was to be found in the numbers or the strength of the Southern whites themselves. How comforting that must be to the Southern people, who have been taught all along to look for help in the triumphs of the National Democracy! How such an announcement would make the Southern people rally to the Democracy!! But there are many Northern Democrats and Conservatives, for whom the World does not speak.

Still more discouraging, the World of the 20th., in speaking of the reduction of the National expenditures by reducing the army and navy to a peace standard, (which could be done, seeing we are not menaced by foreign war,) says:

"The militia of the States would be adequate to preserve domestic tranquility, if the Government would leave the domestic affairs of the States to their own management, as the Constitution requires."

It is true that the militia of the Southern States, properly organized, is amply sufficient to preserve the domestic tranquility. Indeed, we are sure that nothing could arise among us, rendering the active operations of the militia at all necessary to the preservation of peace. The civil posse comitatus, when once the people understand that law has been restored and the military removed, is all that is requisite to the preservation of order and the enforcement of law. The Southern people apprehend far more danger to peace and law and order, from the organization of the "truly loil" militia, than from any other source. The conduct of the Tennessee militia has kept that State in a continual broil and turmoil, and we are satisfied that the arming of a portion of the "truly loil" in North Carolina will prove the greatest possible source of discord and disturbance to the order of society.

The World is not ignorant of the state of things in Tennessee, and which must become universal in the South, if our domestic affairs are left entirely to the management of the class of persons whom Radical reconstruction has thrown upon the surface of society. Peace and quiet are not what they seek or desire. They imagine themselves to be the objects of hatred and disgust, and they are full of revenge and bitterness. They talk of danger and persecution, as if every Southern Conservative were armed to the teeth and ready to destroy them, whereas no such feeling or purpose exists. Our conservative people all want peace and nothing else, but they do not desire it at the cost of degradation, dishonor and ruin. If the government can be moved only by appeals from Southern Radicals, as is plain, what security have Southern Conservatives for protection against the lawlessness and cruelty of the "trooly loil" militia? And yet the World seems willing to turn us adrift and let things take their course!

ON THE 4TH. OF JULY, 1776, Jno. Hancock and Jno. Adams led the vanguard of Freedom, as signers of the Declaration of Independence. They were the two most conspicuous names specially excepted, during the Revolution, in the proclamation of George, the Third. The patriotic associations connected with the two names might rally to the nomination of Hancock and Adams, by the National Democratic Convention, on the 4th. of July, 1868, a tremendous enthusiasm, that would sweep the country. Who knows?

IT IS CHANGED that Stanton, on retiring from the War Department, destroyed a number of important papers, known to have been in his possession. There was much, no doubt, connected with his despotic sway, during the war, and with other matters and persons, important to be known. Like a certain animal, he destroys his footprints or prevents close pursuit, when he attempts to escape.

Ben. Butler says he should despise the Ten Commandments if they taught him to forgive Andy Johnson. Of course he would hate the Commandments any how, because one of them says, "Thou shalt not steal."

Susan B. Anthony, and all the woman's rights women demand that wives shall be capable of contracting, of suing and being sued, as if they were unmarried women—wives to have suitors as though they were spinsters still. Oh, Susan!—World.

T. A. R. Nelson and Emerson Etheridge have been selected as Democratic candidates for Electors at large.

Woolley declares he will run for Congress in Gen. Carey's district. He expects to carry it on the martyr platform.

For the Sentinel.

THE UNIVERSITY.

The late Commencement seems to have drawn out more than the usual number of communications for the Press. Every scribbler, Conservative, Radical, Neutral, grammatical and ungrammatical, has had a gird at the old College. Bad Latin, bad French, and bad English, have been hurled thitherward, garnished, in some cases, with bad temper, and a good deal of what Carlyle calls un-veracity.

The times are surely evil when party spirit takes the cars to Durham's, creeps into Mr. Watson's backs, and goes wriggling and hissing round those fanes and altars, hitherto held far removed from all ignoble strife, and sacred to the Genius of a common love of Letters:

——tapes delubra ad summa draconum
Effugient, ascensuræ petulci. Telamonides arcem,
Inde pedibus qua Deæ, elapsique sub orbe leguntur.

What midsummer madness is this? One set of correspondents, fashioning the tale to suit their party, denounces the Genius loci because Gov. Seymour, "the Copperhead," was invited to deliver a literary address there, and throws dirt on him, and on all who extended a decent hospitality and courtesy towards him. Another set would fain give this unpretending gentleman a political importance which he certainly has no claim to at the South, and magnifies with great gusto the reception given him and the homage that attended his steps. This writer is on the rampage, because the College authorities permitted a graduate to say his say from what he considers a Radical point of view: that one shows the hole he crawled out of, by scandalous impertinence to the ladies of Chapel Hill, and gross prevarications of the truth in nearly every line; or it is elsewhere announced that young Pearson's speech contained "characteristics of the effusions of a gigantic mind." (Good gracious!):

What shall sober people say to these things? Need we point out, to the people of North Carolina, that it is, in fact, the very highest evidence that could possibly be given of the consummate ability and sagacity which guid: the course of the State University, that all parties are allowed there, (not only are allowed, but are earnestly entreated to come up there and get a little education); that while politics are proscribed, no man was ever yet proscribed for his politics; that all shades of opinion are permitted, and treated with a breadth and freedom and generosity which certain less enlightened parts of the State would do well to imitate?

The Senior class, most of whom fought all through the war for Southern Independence, unanimously invited Henry Ward Beecher to preach their valedictory sermon. Hereupon an outcry arose against them as Southern traitors! The students of the College unite and write Gov. Seymour, of Connecticut, to deliver the annual Address. The whole Institution is thereupon denounced as rebel to the General Government!—What more proper and fitting and beautiful than that a great Literary Institution should ignore political animosities and endeavor to bring together, on a common ground, the best wisdom and genius of the day? Is the public going to be so besotted as to believe, that the Faculty and students care about how a man voted at the last election, when they ask him to come and do his best on their intellectual arena for the delight and improvement of their other guests? Are POLITICS AND PARTY (how I hate those two words!) the only consideration, the only guage of sense and merit?

Now, of course, I suppose I shall be read out of the Conservative ranks, but I am going to say that I have read Mr. Pearson's speech attentively and find nothing to object to. It is very good. I like the independence and originality that suggested it and I admire the ability with which he handles so high a theme. It is better that our young men should leave College hopeful for the Republic, true to the Union and the Constitution, than feebly declaring it is all over; chaos is coming; sleat Rez. A College boy may surely be pardoned some extravagances of expression as he spoke, (this printed speech contains none,) and, even supposing his sentiments had been "most tolerable and not to be endured," pray, is the University to be closed against him and all who think with him, or is it to be razed to the ground for having educated him?—For my part, even if his speech should mean "wicking malicho," and the speaker turn out a dangerous demagogue, I am rejoiced that he has had some education to ballast him. I heartily wish all party men and would be leaders had had his advantages—though, perhaps, we had better go a little further back, and wish they all had his sense and talents to start with. I devoutly hope that the soft-heads among the party that claims Pearson won't spoil the lad. They have already printed nonsense enough about him to turn his head, if it be anyways weak. I trust, also, that some paper will give us the Valedictory. It was quite as able as Mr. Pearson's—more elegant and broader. Let the State be proud of them both—of them all! The University has never sent forth a band of graduates with bolder hearts or with weapons better furnished for the great battle of life. "Ajax cannot wither her."

Our State Institution was founded amidst the long roll and swell of the waves that followed the first Revolution,—times surely as troubled and chaotic as the e; when party spirit was full as bitter and irreconcilable. But there were Giants then, who towered the surges and breakers,—true sons of North Carolina, who doffed party feeling, threw aside prejudices and partizanship, ignored the fleeting party names and party hatreds of the day, and, joining hands far above the heads of the baser sort, went in for immortality and the gratitude of posterity, and wrote their names high up on the walls of an institution, that, sitting, as it were, enthroned in the very heart of the State, should stamp her best gold as it issued, forever! Great men, we thank you! Shades of Davie, and Johnston, and Iredell, and Girard, and Person, and Smith, we honor you! We rise up and call you blessed. For three quarters of a century the fires you lighted have burned on these altars with no fitful glare; but, fed by the people's affection, and confidence, and gratitude, as with holy oil, the light on that Hill has flamed pure, and strong, and steady towards Heaven. "The past, at least, is secure." Its priests have given it the best years of their life, and have grown grey in the service.—Some, whose heads were white with forty years labor, have fallen at their posts, even as they fanned the sacred flame. He who for thirty-three years has been the presiding spirit, has never once faltered in his devotion nor hesitated at any sacrifice to secure its best interests. And still the wonted fires burn, though their leaping crest is lowered. Are they to be extinguished?

"Once put out,
I know not where is that Promethean heat
That can their light relume."

To a generous and far-reaching policy we commend it. To a statesmanship clear, calm and discriminating, unbiased by prejudice, unfettered by party, unmoved by clamor; to those whose honor and interest are both concerned in its preservation; and above all, with solemn invocation, to the God of our fathers,—to Thee, Great Centre and Source of all Light, who hast heretofore so abundantly blessed it,—do we commit the future welfare of the University of North Carolina, strong in the affection of her sons, illustrious in her history, and hallowed by the memory of her dead!

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
OF HARTFORD, CONN.
ASSETS, $9,000,000.

No. POLICIES 52,700.
DIVISIBLE SURPLUS $1,884,708,51.
DIVIDENDS, 50 per cent.
In these days of competition between Life Insurance Companies, much is said by rival Agents, each claiming the Company he represents to be the best. Without saying anything in disparagement of any Company, or, by simple assertion, anything in its favor, the ÆTNA begs leave to refer to the annexed table, compiled from the OFFICIAL and SWORN statements of twenty of the largest Companies in America, made to the Insurance Commissioners of the State of New York. The table shows the ratio of expense to each $100 received by each Company, for the three years ending January 1, 1868.
It will be seen that the expenses of the Ætna are much lower than any other Company; and, after the average is struck, the ÆTNA, in 1867, saved $10.41 out of each $100 received—more than the average; in 1866, $7.17, and in 1867, $4.90. The receipts of the ÆTNA were, in 1865, $1,689,309; in 1866, $2,522,376, and in 1867, $5,129,447. Consequently, its savings in the three years were $677,993.39, to which add 7 per cent. interest to July 1, 1868: $119,287.64, making a grand total of $797,307.03 saved over the average of all other Companies.
This is the measure of success, as applied by the Hon Elizur Wright, the greatest of American actuaries, to all Companies, and simply means that the Company whose RATIO of expense to its income is the least, is the best able to pay large dividends to its policy holders. That the Ætna is THAT Company, these comparisons of official statements plainly show.

THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 24, 1868.

SENTINEL FOR THE LEGISLATURE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina, under the new dispensation, will convene, we presume, in this city, early in July.—The general impression is that it will continue its session for three or four months.—The Sentinel, being now the only Daily in the city, the public must rely mainly upon it for the daily proceedings of the General Assembly and the daily telegraphic news.

We are anxious to furnish our readers with a full and correct daily account of its proceedings. This will involve considerable additional expense. The employment of two reporters, one for each House, is an expensive operation, where the remuneration is so slender. There is a desire to have full stenographic proceedings, but the usual additional subscription here is so meagre that it would not pay a tithe of the expense.

We shall do the best we can for our readers and the public. The price of the Daily Sentinel to regular subscribers will remain the same, but those who take it only during the session of the General Assembly will be charged $1 per month. This is as low as it can be afforded.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Breakfast Bacon, Nice White Lard, Sugars of different grades: W. H. Jones & Co., Fayetteville Street.

The next session of the Wilson School, Melville, Alamance Co., (Dr. John Wilson, Jr., Principal,) will commence on the 16th, prox.

Kernersville High School, Male and Female, Kernersville, Forsythe Co.: Fall session commences July 29th.

Thomasville Female College, (Rev. D. R. Bruton, President): Fall session commences Aug. 4th. For particulars see advertisement.

A house convenient to the Capitol, large enough to accommodate ten or fifteen boarders, is wanted. Apply at the Sentinel office.

ERRATUM.—We call attention to a correction in the times of meeting of the Stockholders of the Chatham Railroad Co., and the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad Co., as announced on yesterday. The former will meet on Monday, July 20th., and the latter on Thursday, July 16th.

MAYOR'S COURT.—W. Ellington, charged with assaulting L. Royster, was fined $5.

Henry Stevens, negro, charged with assaulting Jenney Whitaker, negro, was fined $5.

Aston alias Jim Bockwith, negro, charged with larceny, was returned to Court.

Messrs. W. B. Aston & Co., No. 25, Pearl Street, N. Y., advertise Grain and Flour Sacks. They can furnish Grain Sacks of all sizes and qualities. Cotton and Paper Flour Sacks printed to order, &c.

METHODIST SABBATH SCHOOL CONCERT.—A Concert, by the Teachers and Pupils of the Sabbath School of the Methodist Church, will be given in Tucker Hall, to-night. An attractive and pleasing programme will be presented, and the evening will doubtless be rendered a delightful one to all who may attend. The proceeds of the exhibition are to be devoted to school objects, and we hope to see it liberally patronized. The price of admission for adults is 50 cents; children half price.

SUPREME COURT.—The following opinions have been delivered:

By PEARSON, C. J.—In Kornegay vs. Mack Williams, from Duplin, dismissing the bill; In Buie vs. Stewart and wife, from Richmond, demurrer overruled; In Blossom vs. Van Amringe, from New Hanover, order reversed, and decree according to the award; In Ranson vs. Lewis, from Tyrrell, no error, judgment affirmed.

By BATTLE, J.—In State vs. Ludwick, from Rowan, petition refused; In Sumpter vs. Pierce, from Cherokee, judgment affirmed; In Griffin vs. Griffin, from Robeson, judgment reversed; In D R ——— vs. Bradley, from New Hanover, judgment affirmed.

By READE, J.—In Taylor vs. Johnson, from Bertie; In Devines vs. Phillips, from Cumberland, error; In State vs. Hampton, from Guilford, error; In Gibson vs. Groner, from Cabarrus, error. Venire de novo.

TICKETS TO THE NATIONAL CONVENTION.

We are requested to state, for the information of persons desiring tickets of admission to the Democratic National Convention, that application should not be made to the Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, but to the delegates. The tickets have not yet been prepared; but when ready, they will be distributed to delegates from the several States to be bestowed by them on persons of their acquaintance,—a method which will give a fair proportion to members of the party from distant parts of the country. Any other mode of distribution would be likely to fill the hall with citizens of New York, to the exclusion of persons having equal claims.—New York World.

RECONSTRUCTION ITEMS.

The Legislature of North Carolina is composed of 50 Senators and 120 Representatives. Of the Senators, there are three negroes and eight carpet-bag Yankees; in the House, there are sixteen negroes and eight carpet-bag Yankees. The aggregate taxes paid to the State, by the 38 Radical Senators and the 80 Radical Representatives would not exceed $500. The aggregate estimated value of the real property in the State to be taxed is $150,000,000. The Radicals have some 60 majority on joint ballot in the Legislature, and have the power to tax the property of the State, of which they will pay only an infinitesimal part themselves.

The State Treasurer of Mississippi says the expenses of the late bogus Convention in that State, in which, out of one hundred members, there were only seven white Mississippians, already foot up $210,000, and "that there are other large allowances yet to be made for services rendered under its laws." Meanwhile the patients in the Mississippi State Lunatic Asylum would starve but for the charitable, all the public money being needed for reconstruction.

The pretended Constitutions of Georgia, Alabama, Florida and Arkansas were adopted by less than a majority, thus:

	Registration.	For Con.	Less than maj.
Georgia,	191,501	89,007	8,744
Alabama,	179,631	70,812	14,494
Florida,	31,483	14,520	1,980
Arkansas	78,784	27,913	8,980

"The majority must rule."

There are 57 whites and 98 negroes in the bogus South Carolina Legislature—155 in all. 91 of these pay absolutely no tax, the remaining 64 pay $441 80, or an average of only $6 90 apiece. The real estate of the State, at the absolute mercy of these paupers, is, by the latest assessment, worth $70,507,075.

The reconstruction Governor and Lieutenant Governor of Florida are from Wisconsin, and the first United States Senator elected from Michigan. There are three negroes in the Senate of the pretended Legislature and sixteen in the House; Radical majority on joint ballot, thirty. The proposed fourteenth amendment was "ratified" by ten votes out of twenty-four in the Senate, and twenty-four out of fifty-three in the House.

MR. M'CULLOCH DENIES THAT HE RESIGNED—HIS ABSENCE FROM THE CABINET DESIRED BY THE PRESIDENT.

WASHINGTON, June 21, 1868.

The announcement yesterday, in an authoritative manner, that Mr. McCulloch had resigned as Secretary of the Treasury, was afterwards contradicted by Mr. McCulloch himself, through the Associated Press Agent.

It is nevertheless the fact that there was some ground for believing that the Secretary had resigned. Influential Democrats have for some time past been urging the President to get rid of McCulloch, who, whilst professing to be a devoted friend of Mr. Johnson, fosters and sustains his enemies, especially in the distribution of the patronage of the Treasury Department.—This is notorious, and has been brought to the knowledge of the President in specified instances from time to time for months past.

Mr. McCulloch, in a word, has been entirely inconsistent with his nominal status as a friend of the President, and he is well aware that Mr. Johnson would be relieved of much embarrassment with his true friends, were McCulloch to formally tender his resignation. But the Secretary has about as strong a penchant for official power as ex-Secretary Stanton evinced, and, like the latter, remains in the Cabinet, when he cannot but know he is not wanted there by the Executive. There is reason to believe Mr. McCulloch will shortly have presented to him such unmistakable evidences of the President's desire that he will be compelled to retire from the Cabinet.

THE UNITED STATES army, according to the bill reported by the Committee on Military Affairs, is to consist of one general, one Lieutenant General, five Major Generals, ten Brigadiers, five regiments of artillery, ten of cavalry, forty-five of infantry, twelve corps (of inspectors, subsistence, ordnance, &c.,) a bureau of military justice, a band at the Academy, 1,000 Indian scouts, the retired list, and the Professors and cadets at West Point. The General shall have a chief-of-staff and six aids, with headquarters at Washington, and shall not be assigned for duty elsewhere, without consent of the Senate, except at his own request. All military orders from the President or Secretary of War shall issue through the General. Each regiment of artillery shall consist of twelve officers and twelve batteries. Each battery shall consist of twenty three officers and attendants and 122 privates. Each regiment of cavalry shall consist of seventeen officers and attendants and twelve troops; each troop of twenty officers and attendants and from sixty to seventy-eight privates. Each regiment of infantry shall consist of ten officers, and ten companies each of eighteen officers and attendants and fifty privates. Four of the regiments shall be colored, and there shall be four regiments of the Veteran Reserve Corps. This organization would make the army consist of 51,680 men, artillery, cavalry and infantry, besides the miscellaneous and reserve corps.

BUTLER AND GRANT.—These two worthies, after a brief and unnatural estrangement, have, we hear, at last coalesced, like kindred streams meeting into one. The reconciliation is said to have been of the most affecting character, and healths were drank with much enthusiasm. The conditions of the alliance are matters of conjecture. It is reported that General Grant makes the amende in the matter of Butler being "bottled up," the gunpowder experiment at Fort Fisher, and the other allusions which West Pointers are so apt to make in reference to volunteers. Gen. Grant also certifies Butler to be a skilful soldier; and Butler states on his personal honor that Grant is a man of luminous intellect, a great strategist and statesman, and that the difficulties in the way of an exchange sprung not from Grant, but from the rebels. His card some years ago on this subject was written under a mistake. "How pleasant it is for brethren thus to dwell together in unity!"—Nat. Intel.

Miss Vinnie Ream is to be further punished by the Radicals in Congress, by a repeal of the $10,000 appropriation to pay for the bust of Lincoln.

Gerrit Smith is in favor of Chase's election as President, and promises to vote for him.

STATE NEWS.

The Wilmington Journal chronicles a serious disturbance, by negroes, in that City, on Saturday night last, by which the law was defied and its officers resisted and maltreated. This is the legitimate out-cropping of Radical teaching, and need excite no surprise, in view of the fiendish counsels that are instilled into the negroes by white outcasts. If this mob had been the work of white men, we should not hear the last of it. As it is, it will be glossed over, or probably converted into a "rebel outrage." The Journal says:

"Our city was the scene of the most disgraceful occurrence last night it has been our duty ever to note as occurring within its limits. About half-past eight o'clock the police arrested a negro at the Market House, who had previously been seized by one or two white men for an act of stealing. While attempting to bring the prisoner to the guard-house, the officers were assailed by a crowd of furious, excited negroes, who undertook his rescue. They were assailed by the mob with a shower of brickbats, stones, etc., which took effect upon several officers, causing them painful injuries. So furious and determined was the onset of these negroes, that the prisoner was literally torn from the custody of the officers, who were compelled to retreat to the guard-house, followed by the excited mob which continued to assail them in the manner above stated. Even at the gates of the City Hall, with loud cries and threats of violence, they continued their disorderly proceedings, and were dispersed by a squad of soldiers which had been sent for and luckily soon arrived.

We know of no more disgraceful event that could have occurred. What a striking exhibition of Radical teachings!—these are some of the glorious effects promised, and this is an exhibition of the peace they would have! Here is a result of the sale of our peace and dignity, made by the scallawags to the carpet baggers. This we fear is but the beginning; and we may well cry farewell to law and order,—henceforth hail anarchy and mob law!—but "we are going home"—oh, yes.

We can but regret the unjust mockery which places our police force on duty to preserve order and denies them the means of self-protection—numerically weak as they are—in the discharge of this duty."

The following Resolutions, drawn by Gov. Vance, were passed at the adjournment of the Mecklenburg County Court last week. Feeling speeches were made by Gov. Vance, and Messrs. Osborne and Wilson:

Resolved, That in witnessing the adjournment of, perhaps, the last session of the County Courts, which will be held in this County, or the State, we, the members of the Mecklenburg Bar, desire to put upon record this expression of our sincere regret at the overthrow of these ancient, time-honored, and highly useful Courts of Justice.

Resolved, That these Courts, coming down to us as they did from the wisdom and learning of our fathers, became emphatically the people's Courts, renowned for speedy and substantial justice, were the cheap and faithful administrators of estates, the guardians of orphanage and excellent and incomparable conductors of County Finance and Police, admirably suited to the popular character of our institutions; and in seeing them swept away by the vindictive hand of revolution, we feel sure that one of the staunchest supports of civil law, liberty and good government has been torn from the State of North Carolina, and, in the name of all that is venerable and good, we enter our solemn protest against it.

Resolved, That we respectfully ask permission of their Worships to have these Resolves spread upon the minutes of this Court.

Bishop Doggett preached in Charlotte, on Sunday evening.

The Hebrews of Charlotte have purchased a plot of ground, in the suburbs of that city, for a burying place for their people.—The cemetery was consecrated on Sunday afternoon last, and the ceremony was witnessed by a large number of citizens of all denominations.

The Charlotte Times, alluding to the rumor that Smith, of Johnston, is to be President of the North Carolina Railroad, says:

"If it is determined to inflict upon the corporation a scallawag as President, give us as decent a one as can be got. Gen. Barringer (scallawagism out of the question) would really make a good officer. In the first place, he is competent; secondly, has given some attention to the subject; and finally, has some little of his old pride left, which would induce him to do the best he could for the interest of the State."

The Commencement exercises of Concord Female College, Statesville, closed on Thursday. The American speaks in the highest terms of the proficiency of the pupils, the ability of the Faculty, and the literary address by Rev. Dr. McPhail. Twelve young ladies graduated. With the late session closed the official connection of Rev. J. M. M. Caldwell with the institution. He goes to take charge of Edgeworth Female College at Greensboro, with most of the present Faculty, and Rev. E. F. Rockwell will assume the Presidency of "Concord," assisted by competent and well qualified Professors.

PUT IT ON RECORD.

Hon. Mr. Mungen, of Ohio, has three times charged the following from his seat in the House. It is time the matter should be looked into:

"I can prove by the testimony of officers of high position, both of the United States and Confederate troops, that the proposition was made by the Confederate Government to pay three times the price in gold, cotton, and tobacco, for medicines for our soldiers at Andersonville and other Southern prisons; that those medicines should be put under charge of Federal surgeons, and be by them taken in person to the different Southern prisons, and used and distributed to and for the use of Union prisoners alone; this offer was made by the so-called Confederate Government through the proper officers to the proper officers of our Government, and was communicated by those latter officers to the proper head of our Government, and that no response nor attention was paid to the proposition, although our soldiers were dying in those prisons for want of medicine, and the Confederate Government informed the proper officers of this Government of that fact in connection with the proposition.

I can prove that these propositions were received by our officers, when transmitted to the proper authorities, and that they never received any response."

TO LAND OWNERS.

HAVING BEEN APPOINTED, BY THE AMERICAN AGRICULTURAL AND MINERAL LAND COMPANY, Agent for all that part of North Carolina lying east of and including Catawba County, I am authorized to say, to any person or persons having 2,000 acres in one body, partially cleared and near a Rail Road, that if they will subdivide their lands the Company will purchase alternate lots at their assessed value for taxation or as ascertained by two disinterested parties, paying for the same in the Company's stock—the Company obligating itself to place a white settler on every 200 acres, so acquired, within three years, or, failing to do so, such land unsettled to re-vert to the original owner; the owner to retain possession until the land is sold.

The object of this system is to bring into the State an industrious and thrifty population and to enhance the value of our lands. It has been adopted in other states and is said to be working finely.

This Company was chartered by our Legislature of 1866. Land owners will please address me for particulars at Reidsville, N. C.

Wake Forest College, N. C.

THE FALL TERM OF THIS INSTITUTION will open on the first day of August, 1868, with the prospect of increased patronage and success. The complete assurance given at the recent Commencement, of the adaptedness of the University system to the wants of the times, and of its feasibility, encourages its Friends to believe that the College has entered upon a career of popularity and usefulness hitherto unknown in the history. The financial embarrassments to which all Southern Colleges have been subjected are not felt to the same extent at Wake Forest, as at some others, in consequence of the considerable amount of original endowment secured, and of the favorable reception with which the Agent of the College meets in securing additional funds. An expenditure of more than $2,000 has been recently made in improving the condition of the building and grounds.

Determined to bring its advantages within reach of the largest number possible, the Trustees, seconded by the community, have reduced the price of Board and Tuition to the lowest practicable rates.

The officers of instruction are gentlemen of tried ability in their several departments, and the success attending their efforts in the past is the best guarantee the public can have for the future.

The location of the College in point of healthfulness and accessibility, (being situated on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, a few miles from the Capital of the State,) is not surpassed by that of any other in the land; while the moral and social influences connected with and surrounding it, and the peculiar discipline followed, present inducements to patronage of no ordinary kind.

A system of PUBLIC LECTURES on literary and scientific subjects has been introduced, with a view to increase the interest of the young men in the several departments of study, and to furnish additional incentives to investigation and research.

Extensive and well selected LIBRARIES belonging to the Societies, and complete APPARATUS, PHILOSOPHICAL and CHEMICAL, are not to be omitted in the enumeration of the advantages possessed.

Another encouraging feature is that there are, at present, thirteen young men preparing for the ministry, and it may not be amiss to state that any Minister, who may apply for admission, will receive tuition in all the departments free of charge, and those of this class, who are without means, are encouraged to apply to the Board of Education for further assistance.

EXPENSES IN CURRENCY:

Tuition for Preparatory school (per Session)	$20,00

Supposed to be written when she was three weeks old.

Dear old Uncle,

My old Mammy
She ditten better.
She every day
Little bit stronger,
Don't mean to be sick
Very much longer.
Daddy a so fat
Can't hardly stagger;
Mammy says he jinks
Too much lager!
Dear little baby
Had a bad colic;
Had to take tree drops
Nancey paregolic;
Toot a dose of tatnip,

Shan take no more
Tatnip never;
Wind on stomit,
Felt poory bad;
Worse fit of sinness
Ever I had!
Ever had baby sis
Or Uncle Bill?
Taint no fun now,
Say what we will.
I used to sleep all day
And cry all night;
Don't do so now,
Cause taint right!
But I'm growin,
Ditten pootty fat;
Gained most two pounss,
Only tink o' dat!
Little feamin b'asketa
Was too big before,
Nurse can't pin me
In 'em no more.
Skirts so small,
Baby so stout,
Had to let the plaits
In 'em all out.
Got a head of hair
Jess as black as night,
And big boo eye
Yat look mighty bright,
My Mammy says
Never did see
Any ozzer baby
Half so sweet as me.
Granma comes often,
Aunt Sarah, too;
Baby loves nem,
Baby loves oo—
Baby sends a pooty kiss
To his Uncles all,
Aunties and Cousins,
Big folks and small.
Can't yite no more,
Am good by,

NEW ARRANGEMENT

FOR THE

SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,

Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, } Editors.
Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;

The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.—The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Terms:

Daily Sentinel, for one year	$8 00
" " six months	4 00
" " three months	2 00
Semi-Weekly Sentinel, for one year	4 00

All subscriptions strictly cash in advance.

As an advertising medium, the SENTINEL is equal to any in the State. Terms moderate.

☞ We ask every Conservative in the State to become our Agent to extend the circulation of the SENTINEL. The events of 1868 will be exciting and important. The WEEKLY SENTINEL should be in the hands of the great body of the people—The terms are now so low that every one will be able to pay for it.

GENERAL REMARKS.

Revenue stamps may be used indiscriminately upon any of the matters or things enumerated in Schedule B., except proprietary and playing card stamps, for which a special use has been provided.

Postage stamps cannot be used in payment of the duty chargeable on instruments.

It is the duty of the maker of an instrument to affix and cancel the stamp thereon. If he neglects to do so, the party for whom it is made, may stamp it before it is used; and, if used after the 30th of July, 1868, and used without a stamp, it cannot afterwards be effectually stamped. Any failure upon the part of the maker of an instrument, to appropriately stamp it, renders him liable to a penalty of two hundred dollars.

Suits are commenced in many States by other process than writ, viz: summons, warrants, publication, &c., in which case these, as the original process, severally require stamps.

Writs of scire facias are subject to stamp duty as original process.

The jurat of an affidavit, taken before a Justice of the Peace, Notary Public, or other officer duly authorized to take affidavits, is held to be a certificate, and is subject to a stamp duty of five cents, except when taken in suits of legal proceedings.

Certificates of loan in which there shall appear any printed or written evidence of an amount of money to be paid on demand or at any time designated, are subject to stamp duty as Promissory Notes.

The assignment of a mortgage is subject to the same duty as that imposed upon the original instrument; that is to say, for every sum of five hundred dollars, or any fractional part thereof, of the amount secured by the mortgage, at time of its assignment, there must be affixed a stamp or stamps, denoting a duty of five cents.

When two or more persons join in the execution of an instrument, the stamps to which this instrument is liable, under the law, may be affixed and cancelled by one of the parties.

In conveyance of real estate, the law provides that the stamp affixed must answer to the value of the estate or interest conveyed.

No stamp is required on warrant of attorney accompanying a bond or note, when such bond or note has affixed thereto the stamp or stamps denoting the duty required, and whenever any bond or note is secured by mortgage, but one stamp duty is required on such papers, such stamp duty being the highest rates required for such instruments, or either of them. In such case a note or memorandum of the value or denomination of the stamp affixed should be made upon the margin or in the acknowledgment of the instrument which is not stamped.
